~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Exodus 20:1-17

L: A Reading from Exodus:

Then God spoke all these words: I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments. You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name. Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work--you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it. Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

L: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 19

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

Lord, you have the words of ev - er - last - ing life.

Cantor: The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. Refrain.

Cantor: The precepts of the Lord are right, they gladden the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes. Refrain.

Cantor: The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever. The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. Refrain.

Cantor: They are more to be desired than gold, than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb. Refrain.

The Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:18-25

L: A Reading from First Corinthians:

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart." Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Glo-ry to you, O Word of God, Lord Je - sus Christ.

Cantor: We proclaim Christ crucified, The power of God and the wisdom of God.

Holy Gospel: John 2:13-22

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 2nd Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

We pray for the Church: that the Gospel of Christ may inspire and guide us as we journey through these days of Lent toward the joys of the Resurrection. Lord, in your mercy...

For those who lead, guide and serve the God's people: that their ministries may be devout, patient, and faithful. Lord, in your mercy...

For greater discipline in our lives: that we may devote these days of Lent to deeper prayers, turning from self-indulgence, and sharing greater works of love. Lord, in your mercy...

We pray for the nations and all people of creation: that we might see in one another the sacred image of our creator, and live past the lines that divide us. Lord, in your mercy...

For those who hold public office: that they may be attentive to the needs of all whom they serve, and govern with integrity and honor. Lord, in your mercy...

For Luke Daniel and his parents Mark & Brooke, for all newborns, and for expecting families: that they may celebrate the gift of life and share the blessings of Christian Faith in their homes. Lord, in your mercy...

For the children and youth of our community: that they may be kept safe, and that we might seek to protect them from violence and harm. Lord, in your mercy...

We pray for the poor, the weak, and victims of crime and injustice: that they might be blessed with daily bread, new-found strength, and restored dignity. Lord, in your mercy...

For the sick and those who long for fuller health, especially... that they may know the healing gifts of the Holy Spirit and the gentle ministries of doctors, nurses, and caregivers. Lord, in our mercy...

For those who have passed from this life and rest from their labors, especially those whom we remember with love and affection... that with them, through the merits of Christ, we may rise to New Life and the light of God's eternal joys. Lord, in your mercy...

We remember with faithful affection St Perpetua and St Felicity, early martyrs for the faith... St Thomas Aquinas, Doctor of the Church... St Gregory of Nyssa, Bishop of the Church... and all the saints and witnesses who have followed in God's Holy Way: that their lives may inspire us to faithful discipleship and love toward others. Lord, in your mercy...

Stations of the Cross

Lenten Devotions on the Passion & Crucifixion of our Lord

Wednesday Evenings of Lent, 7:00 pm

At Trinity, on Wednesday evenings, we gather at 7:00 pm, to pray the traditional and historic “Stations of the Cross”, a liturgy of readings and prayers which meditate on the passion and crucifixion of our Lord. This rather contemplative rite is quite moving, given its rather solemn character, which directs our hearts and minds toward the depth of Christ’s passion, death, and resurrection.

Please join us, and make “Stations” a part of your Lenten devotions.

Lenten Luncheons

Wednesdays at 12:00 pm (Noon)

- ✓ Our Ecumenical Community, hosted by the Bedford Presbyterian Church, gathers every Wednesday during Lent for a light meal, devotions, and fellowship. Local pastors are sharing meditations and prayers exploring our Lord's question to his Disciples, "Who do men say that I am?"

Adult & All-Parish Ministries

“Lamentations” ~ A Lenten Bible Study

Wednesday Evenings; 6:00 pm

“Lamentations” is a series of poems, written soon after the destruction of the Temple and the time of Israel’s Babylonian Captivity, which give voice to the hardship, the misery, and the violence which the Hebrew People endured through those very difficult days. We’ll listen to the expressions of their struggles, and consider this Book’s significance and implications for our lives, as we may encounter challenges and struggles. Please see Pr Weinhold or Pr Short for more information. Please see Pr Weinhold or Pr Short for more information, and please do invite a friend to join us!

“The Great Covenants” ~ ... Adult Forum Series during Lent

Sunday Mornings; 9:45 am

Throughout history, the Lord has established “covenants” with His people, through which he has bound himself and his people together. As we journey through Lent this year, we are exploring 5 of the more significant covenants which are part of our Judeo-Christian Tradition: with Creation (Adam & Eve and Noah), with Abraham, with Moses, Jeremiah’s covenant, and with Christ at the Last Supper. Through these covenants we encounter our Lord’s steadfast and unending love and are called to live in lives of faith and devotion. Led by Pr Short & Pr Weinhold, we’ll gather in Trinity Hall. Parishioners and friends are encouraged to join us!

Trinity Book Club

Tuesday, March 6; 1:30 pm

The Trinity Book Club will meet on Tuesday, March 6, at 1:30 pm, in the Parish House. We’ll discuss “Life Is So Good”, by George Dawson. Please contact the group’s coordinator, Pat Macchiarolo, with any questions (814-977-2436).

March’s Ministry Highlight and Special Appeal...

Free Community Dinner

- ✓ “Free Community Dinner” is a charitable ministry which serves a hot meal, to about 70 friends of the community every Tuesday evening, as they gather in Trinity’s Social Room. While Trinity is the weekly host-sight of the dinner, we enjoy our ecumenical partnerships with the people of The Bedford Church of the Brethren, The Bedford Presbyterian Church, The Bedford United Methodist Church, St John’s United Church of Christ, and St Thomas Roman Catholic, and JLG Industries, who share in this ministry with us.
- ✓ Since this ministry began in 2009, Trinity’s Serving Team has been coordinated by Betsy Littlefield and continues to involve many parishioners – adults, children & youth. If you’ve not experienced the joy of serving, please see Betsy or sign up the next time the opportunity arises.
- ✓ As you are able during the month, please share a gift with this ministry. The average meal cost is c. $150, and we serve about 8 dinners a year. Please make checks payable to Trinity, and note Community Dinner on the memo line. Special Envelopes have been prepared for this appeal, and are with the Sunday Bulletins and in Trinity Hall.

Free Community Dinner

Thank You, Very Much!

Thanks to the generosity of many parishioners and friends to last month’s appeal for the ELCA World Hunger Appeal, we received special offerings of $830 to share with this ministry. Thanks, again!

Loose Coins...

Loose coins which are received in the Sunday Offering are directed to small acts of charity, through the Pastor’s Discretionary Fund. This can be a small grocery order, or other essential need to help a neighbor address a challenging situation. See Pr W or Pr S with any questions. Thanks for your generosity!
