~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Numbers 21:4-9

L: A Reading from Numbers:

From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

L: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 107

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is ev - er - last - ing.

Cantor: "O give thanks to the Lord who is good; whose love endures for ever." Let them say this, the Lord's redeemed, those redeemed from the hand of the foe and gathered from far off lands, from east and west, north and south. Refrain.

Cantor: Some were sick on account of their sins and afflicted on account of their guilt. They had a loathing for ev'ry food; they came close to the gates of death. Refrain.

Cantor: Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress, sent forth a word of healing, and saved their life from the grave. Refrain.

Cantor: Let them confess the love of the Lord, the wonders God does for the people. Let them offer a sacrifice of thanks and tell of God's deeds with rejoicing. Refrain.

The Second Reading: Ephesians 2:1-10

L: A Reading from Ephesians:

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ --by grace you have been saved--and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God--not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Glo-ry to you, O Word of God, Lord Je - sus Christ.

Cantor: God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, So that all who believe in Him might have eternal life.

Holy Gospel: John 3:14-21

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 3rd Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. "Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed.

But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

For the Church: that we may share the light of the Gospel with all who are struggling to recognize good from evil, truth from lies, and selfless love from self-serving activity. Lord in your mercy

For a growth of faith: that we may return again and again to the scriptures, the sacraments, and our faithful communities so that we might come to better know the mystery and wonder of our God. Lord in your mercy

For a spirit of respect: that in our pursuits of all that is good and true, we might always remember the dignity of other people, even when we disagree. Lord in your mercy

For patience and discernment: that when facing the difficulties and problems of life, we might take the time to see all sides of a struggle so that the best possible outcome might be reached for the good of everyone involved. Lord in your mercy

For all who lead others: that they might work with wisdom and diligence as they strive to meet the needs of those whom they serve. Lord in your mercy

For all who live with illness or limitation of any sort: especially... That their strength might be renewed and that the efforts of caregivers and loved ones might bring healing and lift their spirits. Lord in your mercy.

For those who have died: especially that they might rest eternal in the merciful embrace of Christ and that those who mourn might find comfort and hope in the eternal promises of God. Lord in your mercy.

For peace: that we might learn to be better at putting aside our pride for the sake of working with others and bringing about a better day for all. Lord in your mercy

Stations of the Cross

Lenten Devotions on the Passion & Crucifixion of our Lord

Wednesday Evenings of Lent, 7:00 pm

At Trinity, on Wednesday evenings, we gather at 7:00 pm, to pray the traditional and historic “Stations of the Cross”, a liturgy of readings and prayers which meditate on the passion and crucifixion of our Lord. This rather contemplative rite is quite moving, given its rather solemn character, which directs our hearts and minds toward the depth of Christ’s passion, death, and resurrection. Please join us, and make “Stations” a part of your Lenten devotions.

Lenten Luncheons

Wednesdays at 12:00 pm (Noon)

- ✓ Our Ecumenical Community, hosted by the Bedford Presbyterian Church, gathers every Wednesday during Lent for a light meal, devotions, and fellowship. Local pastors are sharing meditations and prayers exploring our Lord’s question to his Disciples, “Who do men say that I am?”
- ✓ THANKS!, to coordinator, Arlene Fluke, and everyone that donated cakes and helped prepare and serve the lunch, on behalf of Trinity, at this past week’s Lenten Luncheon.

Adult & All-Parish Ministries

“The Great Covenants” ~ ... Adult Forum Series during Lent

Sunday Mornings; 9:45 am

Throughout history, the Lord has established “covenants” with His people, through which he has bound himself and his people together. As we journey through Lent this year, we are exploring 5 of the more significant covenants which are part of our Judeo-Christian Tradition: with Creation (Adam & Eve and Noah), with Abraham, with Moses, Jeremiah’s covenant, and with Christ at the Last Supper. Through these covenants we encounter our Lord’s steadfast and unfailing love and are called to live in lives of faith and devotion. Led by Pr Short & Pr Weinhold, we’ll gather in Trinity Hall. Parishioners and friends are encouraged to join us!

“Lamentations” ~ A Lenten Bible Study

Wednesday Evenings; 6:00 pm

“Lamentations” is a series of poems, written soon after the destruction of the Temple and the time of Israel’s Babylonian Captivity, which give voice to the hardship, the misery, and the violence which the Hebrew People endured through those very difficult days. We’ll listen to the expressions of their struggles, and consider this Book’s significance and implications for our lives, as we may encounter challenges and struggles. Please see Pr Weinhold or Pr Short for more information. Please see Pr Weinhold or Pr Short for more information, and please do invite a friend to join us!

March’s Ministry Highlight and Special Appeal...

Free Community Dinner

- ✓ “Free Community Dinner” is a charitable ministry which serves a hot meal, to about 70 friends of the community every Tuesday evening, as they gather in Trinity’s Social Room. While Trinity is the weekly host-sight of the dinner, we enjoy our ecumenical partnerships with the people of The Bedford Church of the Brethren, The Bedford Presbyterian Church, The Bedford United Methodist Church, St John’s United Church of Christ, and St Thomas Roman Catholic, and JLG Industries, who share in this ministry with us.
- ✓ Since this ministry began in 2009, Trinity’s Serving Team has been coordinated by Betsy Littlefield and continues to involve many parishioners – adults, children & youth. If you’ve not experienced the joy of serving, please see Betsy or sign up the next time the opportunity arises.
- ✓ As you are able during the month, please share a gift with this ministry. The average meal cost is c. $150, and we serve about 8 dinners a year. Please make checks payable to Trinity, and note Community Dinner on the memo line. Special Envelopes have been prepared for this appeal, and are with the Sunday Bulletins and in Trinity Hall.
- ✓ Thanks, for your offerings to date of $20.00

Free Community Dinner

Loose Coins...

Loose coins which are received in the Sunday Offering are directed to small acts of charity, through the Pastor’s Discretionary Fund. This can be a small grocery order, or other essential need to help a neighbor address a challenging situation. See Pr W or Pr S with any questions. Thanks for your generosity!
