~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Acts 4:32-35

L: A Reading from Acts:

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

L: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 133

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

How good and how pleas-ant it is, when peo-ple live in u - ni - ty!

Cantor: It is like precious oil upon the head, running down upon the beard, running down upon Aaron's beard, upon the collar of his robes.
Refrain.

Cantor: It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the heights of Zion. For there the Lord gives blessing, life for ever. Refrain.

The Second Reading: 1 John 1:1-2:2

L: A Reading from First John:

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Cantor: You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord; blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe.

Holy Gospel: John 20:19-31

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 20th Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

For the Church: that we might remain faithful in our proclamation of the gospel and true in the love of our neighbors even when such word and deed sets us apart from the rest of society. Lord in your mercy.

For the gift of peace: that the knowledge of Christ's victory and promise of salvation might resonate with us and sustain us through all the challenges of life. Lord in your mercy

For a spirit of love: that we might recognize the unfair and unjust thoughts we have towards our neighbors and better learn to live with kindness and charity towards those around us. Lord in your mercy

For the grace of reconciliation: that God will help us to turn from selfishness, forgive those who have injured us and be instruments of reconciliation in our society. Lord in your mercy

For government leaders: that they may hear the needs of those who suffer, are marginalized or who feel forgotten, and develop policies that will promote the good of every person. Lord in your mercy

For healing: that the Spirit will renew the gift of life in all who are sick, discouraged, or struggling with the limitations that come with aging. Especially Lord in your mercy

For all who have died and loved ones who are grieving: that God would hold His faithful close in His eternal care and, little by little, wipe the tears of those who mourn. Especially we remember Lord in your mercy

For the saints of the church: especially we remember St Julius, defender of orthodoxy and protector of God's faithful. May we learn from his example to seek out and proclaim the truth and to act with integrity and justice. Lord in your mercy.

April's Special Ministry Highlight and Appeal

- ✓ Pastor serves The International Lutheran Congregation, a congregation of the Kenya Evangelical Lutheran Church, in Nairobi, a companion of the ELCA's Allegheny Synod. His wife, Leslie, works with the Pangani Lutheran Children's Center, a ministry for orphaned and impoverished girls. Together, they work with the congregation's HIV/AIDS program, nursery school, knitting and sewing schools... ministries that serve the community.
- ✓ Our special offerings, shared during the month of September, will provide financial support to them and the ministries they share among the people of Kenya. Please share as generously as you are able, using a special envelope. Please make checks payable to Trinity, and note "Missionaries" on the memo line.

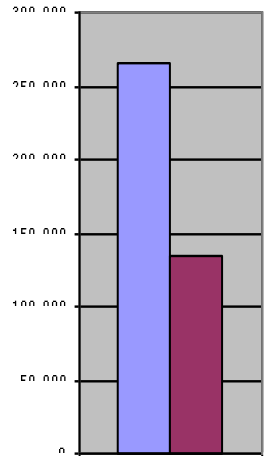

Loose Coins in the Sunday Offering...

Loose coins which are received in the Sunday Offering are directed to small acts of charity, through the Pastor's Discretionary Fund. This can be a small grocery order, or other essential need to help a neighbor address a challenging situation. See Pr short or Pr Weinholt with any questions. Thanks for your generosity!

Trinity's "Garden of the Resurrection"

Please remember that the "Garden of the Resurrection", which is located along the north side of the church, is a serene and well-appointed place to inter the cremated remains of parishioners and loved-ones. There is something very appropriate about being buried "in the shadow of the Church"... Please see Pr Short or Pr Weinhold with any questions, or visit Trinity's website to find more information.
