~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Acts 4:5-12

L: A Reading from Acts:

The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.' There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."

L: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 23

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

The Lord is my shep - herd, noth - ing shall I want.

Cantor: Lord, you are my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where you give me repose. Near restful waters you lead me, to revive my drooping spirit. Refrain.

Cantor: You guide me along the right path; You are true to your name. If I should walk I the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. Refrain.

Cantor: You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. Refrain.

Cantor: Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever and ever. Refrain.

The Second Reading: 1 John 3:16-24

L: A Reading from First John:

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Cantor: I am the Good Shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Holy Gospel: John 10:11-18

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 10th Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

- ⊕ For the Church: that we who are the beloved of God, may recognize the love God has shown us, live confidently as children of God each day, and show forth the love of God in the way that we live and interact with those around us. Lord in your mercy
- ⊕ For the grace of discernment: that in a world full of choices, we might learn to see and select only what is good, lasting, faithful, and true. Lord in your mercy
- ⊕ For bishops, priests, and all who minister in the Church: that they may model in word and deed the love and compassion of the Good Shepherd as they offer their lives in service to God's people. Lord in your mercy
- ⊕ For leaders of nations: that God will give them a heart like the Good Shepherd, compassion toward those who are suffering, and wisdom to develop policies that advance the common good. Lord, in your mercy
- ⊕ For the grace to slow down: that God might help us to find ways of slowing down so that we might accomplish our tasks well and enjoy the true gifts of life that God has placed all around us. Lord in your mercy.
- ⊕ For those who are ill: especially.... That the spirit of God would work through the efforts of loved ones and caregivers so that healing might come and renewed hope and joy might be found. Lord in your mercy.
- ⊕ For the faithful who have died: especially... That they may have rest from their labors in the eternal presence of God and that loved ones who grieve might find comfort and peace in the promises of the Good Shepherd. Lord in your mercy
- ⊕ For peace: that God will turn hearts from violence, end the use of chemical weapons and help us grow in understanding and respect for one another. Lord in your mercy
