~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Acts 8:26-40

L: A Reading from Acts:

Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: "Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth." The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?" He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

L: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 22:25-31

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

I will praise you, Lord, in the as - sem - bly of your peo - ple.

Cantor: My vows I will pay before those who fear God. The poor shall eat and shall have their fill. Those who seek the Lord shall praise the Lord. May their hearts live for ever and ever! Refrain.

Cantor: All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord, all families of the nations shall bow down in awe. They shall bow down, all the mighty of the earth, all who must die and go down to the dust.
Refrain.

Cantor: My soul shall live for God and my children too shall serve. They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come; declare to those unborn, the faithfulness of God. "These things the Lord has done".
Refrain.

The Second Reading: 1 John 4:7-21

L: A Reading from First John:

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Cantor: Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me will bear much fruit.

Holy Gospel: John 15:1-8

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 15th Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine-grower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

- ⊕ We pray for the Church: that, with St Philip and all the Apostles, we may continue to welcome newcomers to the Faith through the Waters of Baptism. Especially today we pray for Brynn Elizabeth, and her family and Godparents. Lord in your mercy...
- ⊕ That we might celebrate the support and nurture which Christ, our Savior and Lord, shares with all whom he loves. Lord, in your mercy...
- ⊕ For faithful Bishops, Pastors, and Deacons, who will defend the Church and care for her people with devotion and grace. Lord, in your mercy...
- ⊕ We pray that our love for one another might grow, each day, to resemble the fullness of love which God, our Father, has for us. Lord, in your mercy...
- ⊕ For those who serve on the Ministry Teams of our congregation: that they may inspire us through their efforts, and enrich the ministries which we share together. Lord, in your mercy...

- ⊕ We pray for our Confirmands and Mentors as they gather and study together this afternoon: Robyn & Mary, Brady & Eric, Alex & Wayne, and Ali and Laura; that they might grow and mature as treasured branches of the vine. Lord, in your mercy...
- ⊕ We pray for the leaders of nations, states, and communities: that they might be agents of justice, vision, and peace in challenging and conflicted times. Lord, in your mercy...
- ⊕ We pray for those who long for healing, energy, and strength, especially...; that the mercies of God might be theirs, and the compassion of their caregivers and family members may bear them up. Lord, in your mercy...
- ⊕ We pray for the faithful who have died and who dwell, with God, in the bosom of Abraham:... That Christ, who has redeemed the world, may welcome them to freedom and life, and comfort those who mourn through the blessings of the Spirit. Lord, in your mercy...
- ⊕ We pray with gratitude for the witness of the saints, especially St Catherine of Siena, patroness of nurses, and St Athanasius, archbishop and doctor of the Church; that their lives might inspire us to care for others with deep humility, and to study and hold fast to the Truth of the Gospel which is ours. Lord, in your mercy...
