~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Acts 10:44-48

L: A Reading from Acts:

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

L: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 98

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

The Lord has re-vealed to the na - tions God's sav-ing pow'r, God's sav-ing pow'r.

Cantor: Sing a new song to the Lord who has worked wonders; whose right hand and holy arm have brought salvation. Refrain.

Cantor: The Lord has made know salvation; has shown justice to the nations; has remembered truth and love for the house of Israel. Refrain.

Cantor: All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord, all the earth, ring out your joy. Refrain.

The Second Reading: 1 John 5:1-6

L: A Reading from First John:

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Cantor: Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

Holy Gospel: John 15:9-17

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 15th Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

For the Church: that we may take the Good News of God's love and care for us to heart and joyfully share that same Good News with the world around us. Lord in your mercy

For Bishops, Pastors, and Deacons: that they might serve the church with joy and dedication so that all who are touched by their ministry might know the care of God in their own lives. Lord in your mercy

For patience and discernment: that we might take the time to recognize the true needs of our neighbors and give of ourselves to aid and assist them. Lord in your mercy.

For the newly baptized: Especially ..., that the Holy Spirit might nurture in them lives of faith, hope, and love. Lord in your mercy.

For public officials: that they will serve their communities honestly and with true commitment to the good of all. Lord in your mercy

For students as they finish the semester: that they may rejoice in what they have learned and use their new gifts and understandings for the good of others. Lord in your mercy.

For those who are ill: Especially ..., that the days ahead might see renewed strength in their bodies and that the care of loved ones might lift and restore their spirits. Lord in your mercy

For those who have died: especially ..., that they might have rest in the care of God and that those who mourn might know healing and hope in the promises and works of Christ. Lord in your mercy.

For the Saints of the church: especially we remember St Julian of Norwich. May her example of fidelity and her teachings of grace, love and mercy, form and shape us as we seek to live lives that are full of faith and love. Lord in your mercy.
