~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Acts 2:1-21

L: A Reading from Acts: When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 104

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

Send out your Spir - it, O Lord, and re - new the face of the earth.

Cantor: Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord God, how great you are. How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your riches. Refrain.

Cantor: You take back your spirit, they die, returning to dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the sea. Refrain.

Cantor: May the glory of the Lord last for ever! May the Lord rejoice in creation! May my thoughts be pleasing to God. I find my joy in the Lord. Refrain.

The Second Reading: Romans 8:22-27

L: St Paul writes: We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Al-le - lu - ia, Al-le - lu - ia, Al-le - lu - ia.

Cantor: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

Holy Gospel: John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John chapter 15 & 16

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. But I have said these things to you so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you about them. "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, "Where are you going?" But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

As we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, we give thanks for the Church, established by Jesus, empowered by the Holy the Spirit, and sent into the world to bear witness to Christ's victory over sin and death; that her faith and her ministries may be vibrant, and that she will speak graciously of truth, comfort, reconciliation, and life. Lord, in your mercy...

... For a flourishing of the fruits of the Spirit: that our lives might show forth love, joy, and peace..., patience and kindness... goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Lord, in your mercy...

... For Faithful Bishops and Leaders: that those called to preserve and defend the Unity of the Church may find the courage and conviction to fulfill their calling. Lord, in your mercy...

... For all who build up the Church through lives of service, especially those who teach and shepherd our children and youth... For greeters and ushers and those who prepare the altar... For Acolytes, Lectors, and Deacons... For those who make music – choir members, cantors, and organists: that their ministries might be a pleasing offering to the Lord, and that we might be inspired by their examples. Lord, in your mercy...

We pray for our Confirmands, Robyn, Brady, Alex, and Ali: that the Holy Spirit will guide them in the Faith, and empower them in their serving. Lord, in your mercy...

We pray for those who lead and guide the peoples of the earth: that they may pursue that which is good and just, defend the innocent, seek peace, and protect the creation. Lord, in your mercy...

We pray for all who are ill, those recuperating, and their caregivers: that the healing love of the Spirit will strengthen them, bring them to wholeness, and fill them with patience and compassion. Especially today we remember those dear to us.... Lord, in your mercy...

We pray for all who have died to this life in the hope of the resurrection, especially those dear to us... As they rest from their labors in the hope of rising with Christ, may the Holy Spirit comfort and console their families and friends who mourn. Lord, in your mercy...

We remember, with thanksgiving, the Saints of the Church, and the witness they have shared, especially St Peter and all the apostles, St Paul, and St Luke the Evangelist: that the Holy Spirit will enlighten our lives with the same grace and favor which was their's, and that, on the last day, we may come to the eternal joys of heaven. Lord, in your mercy...

Free Community Dinner ~ Ecumenical Ministry

- ✓ Trinity hosts and coordinates the "Free Community Dinner" ministry which serves warm and nutritious meals to neighbors of our community every week.
- ✓ Thanks! for all the support which so many parishioners and friends continue to share with this ministry!
- ✓ Next time Trinity will serve - Tuesday, June 19th. (This is during Trinity's VBS week). A sign-up sheet, for cooks and servers, is posted in Trinity Hall.
- ✓ Brownies, Please! Please sign up in Trinity Hall if you are willing to share a 9x12 pan of brownies for the upcoming dinner. Thanks, in advance!

Your Safe Haven

May's Special Ministry Highlight and Appeal

- ✓ "Your Safe Haven" provides support and shelter for local victims of domestic abuse and acts of violence. Those who turn to "Your Safe Haven" receive professional counseling, help in finding and creating a safe environment, and assistance in navigating the legal process when situations necessitate such.
- ✓ Please share special offerings during the month of May to support the work of "Your Safe Haven" in our community. Special envelopes are in Trinity Hall and with the Sunday Bulletins. Please make checks payable to "Trinity Lutheran Church" and note "Your Safe Haven" on the memo line.

~ Other Notes and Updates ~

Graduates... Please share your news!

Parishioners and friends are invited to share their graduation news with the congregation. Please visit the sign-up sheet in Trinity Hall. We'll include those who share their news with us in the prayers later this Spring.

TLC / Paul Schendel Memorial Scholarship News...

This year, 3 graduating seniors of Trinity, Alyssa Burkett, Emily Martz, and Erick Seager, have been chosen by our Executive Team, to be the recipients of the TLC/Paul Schendel memorial scholarship. These youth have all demonstrated strong and exemplary participation in the life and ministries of Trinity through their high school years. They'll receive their awards at the BHS Award's Night Ceremony on Tuesday, May 22. Please share a word of congratulation with Alyssa, Emily, and Erick!

Trinity continues to flourish and be blessed by wonderful growth. But this also means we sometimes lose track of who our fellow members are. So, we are partnering with Lifetouch Photography to create a new photo directory to celebrate our 250th anniversary. Photos will be taken August 3-4, 7-8 and October 3-4. Please consider signing up to have you or your family's photo taken during these days. This allows other parishioners a chance to see who you are, will afford you a free 8x10 of your best picture, and will get you a free photo directory once they are printed. More information and details about signing up for a date/time, will be coming soon!

The 250th Anniversary Altar & Nave Renovation Project

- ✓ Thank you, very much, for your generosity and commitment to the ministries of Trinity! Your support is greatly appreciated!
- ✓ Given the scope and expense of the extensive improvements included in the 250th Anniversary Altar & Nave Renovation Project, we encourage all parishioners and friends to share generously with the work.
- ✓ If you've not done so already, would you please consider making a pledge and supporting the renovation and improvements? You can share your gifts weekly, monthly or annually over the next 3 years.
- ✓ Our website has detailed images and descriptions of the project, which parishioners and friends are encouraged to review.
- ✓ We'll move our weekly Sunday morning liturgies to Trinity Hall, from Sunday, June 17 through September 2, while the contractors are completing the renovations.
- ✓ Thank you, again, for the support you've shown the Christian Ministries of Trinity through the years, in so many ways!

Goal: $265,365

Loose Coins in the Sunday Offering...

Loose coins which are received in the Sunday Offering are directed to acts of charity, through the Pastor's Discretionary Fund. This might be a small grocery order, or other essential needs to help a neighbor address a challenging situation. See Pr Short or Pr Weinhold with any questions. Thanks for your generosity!
