~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-8

L: A Reading from Isaiah:

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 29

Please join in singing the congregational refrain:

Cantor: O give the Lord, you children of God, give the Lord glory and power; Give the Lord the glory of his name. Adore the Lord, resplendent and holy. Refrain.

Cantor: The Lord's voice resounding on the waters, the Lord on the immensity of waters; The voice of the Lord, full of power, the voice of the Lord, full of splendor. Refrain.

Cantor: The God of glory thunders. In his temples they all cry: "Glory!" The Lord sat enthroned over the flood; The Lord sits as king for ever. Refrain.

The Second Reading: Romans 8:12-17

L: A reading from Romans:

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh— for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!", it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Please rise and join in singing the Gospel Acclamation's Refrain:

Cantor: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; God's glory fills the whole earth.

Holy Gospel: John 3:1-17

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. John the 3rd chapter

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God." Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above." Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? "Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. "Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

The Athanasian Creed

As the Church celebrates the Feast of the Holy Trinity, we confess the third of the Church's great ecumenical creeds, attributed to St Athanasius, 4th century Archbishop of Alexandria. (formatted for liturgical use).

- L: Whoever wants to be saved should above all cling to the catholic faith. Whoever does not guard it whole and inviolable will doubtless perish eternally.
- C: Now this is the catholic faith: We worship one God in trinity and the Trinity in unity, neither confusing the persons nor dividing the divine being. For the Father is one person, the Son is another, and the Spirit is still another. But the deity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is one, equal in glory, coeternal in majesty. What the Father is, the Son is, and so is the Holy Spirit.
- L: Uncreated is the Father; uncreated is the Son; uncreated is the Spirit. The Father is infinite; the Son is infinite; the Holy Spirit is infinite. Eternal is the Father; eternal is the Son; eternal is the Spirit: And yet there are not three eternal beings, but one who is eternal; as there are not three uncreated and unlimited beings, but one who is uncreated and unlimited.
- C: Almighty is the Father; almighty is the Son; almighty is the Spirit: And yet there are not three almighty beings, but one who is almighty.

- L: Thus the Father is God; the Son is God; the Holy Spirit is God: And yet there are not three gods, but one God. Thus the Father is Lord; the Son is Lord; the Holy Spirit is Lord: And yet there are not three lords, but one Lord. As Christian truth compels us to acknowledge each distinct person as God and Lord, so catholic religion forbids us to say that there are three gods or lords.
- C: The Father was neither made nor created nor begotten; the Son was neither made nor created, but was alone begotten of the Father; the Spirit was neither made nor created, but is proceeding from the Father and the Son. Thus there is one Father, not three fathers; one Son, not three sons; one Holy Spirit, not three spirits.
- L: And in this Trinity, no one is before or after, greater or less than the other; but all three persons are in themselves, coeternal and coequal; and so we must worship the Trinity in unity and the one God in three persons. Whoever wants to be saved should think thus about the Trinity.
- C: It is necessary for eternal salvation that one also faithfully believe that our Lord Jesus Christ became flesh. For this is the true faith that we believe and confess: That our Lord Jesus Christ, God's Son, is both God and man.
- L: He is God, begotten before all worlds from the being of the Father, and he is man, born in the world from the being of his mother -- existing fully as God, and fully as man with a rational soul and a human body; equal to the Father in divinity, subordinate to the Father in humanity.
- C: Although he is God and man, he is not divided, but is one Christ. He is united because God has taken humanity into himself; he does not transform deity into humanity.
- L: He is completely one in the unity of his person, without confusing his natures. For as the rational soul and body are one person, so the one Christ is God and man.
- C: He suffered death for our salvation. He descended into hell and rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
- L: At his coming all people shall rise bodily to give an account of their own deeds. Those who have done good will enter eternal life, those who have done evil will enter eternal fire.
- C: This is the catholic faith. One cannot be saved without believing this firmly and faithfully. Amen.

Deacon's Intercessions:

For the Church: that we, a Triune people, might faithfully proclaim the Gospel of Christ in the world so that all who hear might know of the good, faithful, and glorious God whom we worship. Lord in your mercy

For the strength to embrace mystery: that we might recognize the limits of our knowledge and rejoice in the goodness of our God. And that we might confidently follow Him wherever he leads us. Lord in your mercy

For a spirit of gratitude: that we may better recognize all the great things that God has done for us and, with grateful hearts, share our blessings with those around us. Lord in your mercy

For students and teachers as they begin their summer vacation: that they may find refreshment and renewal in the summer ahead and be preserved from all harm. Lord in your mercy

For all who lead and guide others: that they might have wisdom, discernment, and integrity as they strive to care for all who depend on them. Lord in your mercy

For victims of violence: especially the victims of the Santa Fe High school shooting. That God might heal the brokenness in our hearts that leads us to harm one another and inspire us with new models that keep our children safe. Lord in your mercy

For all affected by natural disasters, particularly the people of Hawaii: that God will give them strength, preserve them from harm and open the hearts of many to assist them. Lord in your mercy

For all who battle illness and limitation: especially..., that the Holy Spirit might renew their strength each day and lift their spirits through the care of friends and loved ones. Lord in your mercy.

For all who have died and rest in the care of God: especially ... that they might be held safely in the presence of their Creator and that the promises of God might dry the tears of those who weep. Lord in your mercy

For the gift of peace: that God will open new pathways for dialogue between the nations so that all people may live out their days in peace and safety. Lord in your mercy

Trinity continues to flourish and to be blessed by wonderful growth. But this also means we sometimes lose track of fellow members. So, we are partnering with Lifetouch Photography to create a new photo directory to celebrate our 250th anniversary. Photos will be taken August 3-4, 7-8 and October 3-4. Please be sure to sign up to have your or your family's photo taken during these days. This allows other parishioners a chance to see who you are, and will also afford you a free 8x10 of your best picture and will your own (free) copy of the photo directory once they are printed. Please watch for information about signing up for a date/time, which will be coming soon!

Graduates... Please share your news!

Special Prayers on Sunday, June 3

Parishioners and friends are invited to share their graduation news with the congregation. Please visit the sign-up sheet in Trinity Hall.

Altar - Nave Renovation Team Meeting

Monday, June 11; 6:30 pm

Our Altar-Nave Renovation Team will meet to review the details of the upcoming renovation, which will begin in mid-June. We still have a few decisions to finalize, especially related to welcoming art in the Narthex, paraments for the pulpit and lectern, and few other details.

The 250th Anniversary Altar & Nave Renovation Project

- ✓ Thank you, very much, for your generosity and commitment to the ministries of Trinity! Your support is greatly appreciated!
- ✓ Given the scope and expense of the improvements included in the 250th Anniversary Altar & Nave Renovation Project, we encourage all parishioners and friends to share generously with the work.
- ✓ Please consider making a pledge and supporting the renovation and improvements, if you've not done so already. You can share your gifts weekly, monthly or annually over the next 3 years.
- ✓ Our website has detailed descriptions which parishioners and friends are encouraged to review.
- ✓ We'll move our weekly Sunday morning liturgies to Trinity Hall, from Sunday, June 17 through September 2, while the contractors are completing the renovations.
- ✓ Thank you, again, for the support you've shown the Christian Ministries of Trinity through the years, in so many ways!

Goal: $265,365
To Date:
104 Pledges
$146,475 (56%)
