~ Today's Readings ~

The First Reading: Genesis 3:8-15

L: A Reading from Genesis:

They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate." The Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel."

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 130

Out | of the depths

I cry to | you, O LORD;

O LORD, | hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my | supplication.

If you were to keep watch | over sins,

O LORD, | who could stand?

Yet with you | is forgiveness,

in order that you | may be feared.

I wait for you, O LORD; | my soul waits;
in your word | is my hope.
For the LORD shall | redeem Israel
from | all their sins.

The Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

L: A reading from Second Corinthians:

But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Acclamation

Holy Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia,

al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Repeat alleluia

Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life.

D: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the 3rd chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

D: And the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered. "Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"— for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

D: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Deacon's Intercessions:

For the Church: that we may be true and faithful in our proclamation of the Gospel message and loving in all of our works.
Lord in your mercy

For a love of truth: that we might learn to slow down and think things through so that all people might come together around understandings that are good, reasonable, and true. Lord in your mercy

For the newly baptized: especially Liam Jeffrey, Layla Rosemary, and Jack Thomas, that they may live their lives knowing the love of God and that each new day might see them grow in faith, hope, and love. Lord in your mercy

For the newly married: especially Olivia and Tyler, that they might be a help to one another and that in growing closer to each other, they might grow closer to God. Lord in your mercy

For new members of Trinity, especially Janet, Toni, Noel, Matt, and Suella,: that they might find in this congregation a place of worship, joy, and truth and that they might give of their time and talents toward sharing the Gospel with this community. Lord in your mercy

For those who lead others: that they might have wisdom, discernment, and energy to create and nurture communities that are healthy and just. Lord in your mercy

For all who have been impacted by floods, volcanoes or wildfires: that God will help them rebuild their lives, give them strength to face their challenges and touch the hearts of many to assist them.
Lord in your mercy

For all who are ill: especially ..., that the Spirit of God might abide with them, lift their spirits, and bring about a new day of health and wholeness. Lord in your mercy

For all who rest in the eternal presence of God: especially . . . , that they may have peace in the care of God, and that we who mourn might have hope in the promises of Christ for all of his people.
Lord in your mercy

For the gift of peace: that God will stir up in the hearts of all people a desire for cooperation, mutual understanding, and lasting peace. Lord in your mercy

250th Anniversary Photo Directory

Trinity continues to flourish and to be blessed by wonderful growth. But this also means we sometimes lose track of fellow members. So, we are partnering with Lifetouch Photography to create a new photo directory to celebrate our 250th anniversary. Photos will be taken August 3-4, 7-8 and October 3-4.

Please be sure to sign up to have your photo taken during these days. This allows other parishioners a chance to see who you are, and will also afford you a free 8x10 of your best picture and your own free copy of the photo directory once they are printed.

Registration is open today in Trinity Hall after Both Liturgies! Stop by and sign up or follow the link on Trinity's website to register yourself.
